

Saturday, November 21 is Bourbonanza 2020- Spirited Saturday in Downtown Frankfort. Celebrate our bourbon heritage as you stroll through downtown visiting our unique shops and restaurants. Top off your day with a chance to win a rare bourbon during the Spirit Saturday auction at the Grand Theatre.

Spirited Saturday welcomes revelers to the historic Grand Theatre where the Frankfort Bourbon Society will feature fine bourbon tastings and a local caterer will serve up spirited hors d'oeuvres.

The highlight of the event is a live, socially-distanced auction of rare bourbon attracting collectors, near and far. Participants and spectators alike will enjoy a high energy experience as folks jockey to bid the highest price and "win" the coveted prize. Some items already donated for this year's auction include: Jim Beam Distiller's Masterpiece Finished in PX Sherry Casks; Blanton's Gold, Van Winkle Family Reserve Rye 13 Year, William LaRue Weller, Antique Collection, Thomas H. Handy, Antique Collection, and more!!! You must be 21+ to participate. The doors will open at 6:45p.m. and the auction begins at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $35 and available now by calling the Grand Theatre at 502-352-7469 (Monday-Friday 10am-3pm) or $45 at door. Due to social distancing this event will only be allowed to admit the first 100 guests!

This year's event will be held following strict COVID-19 safety guidance. It is sponsored by WesBanco and is a fundraiser for Downtown Frankfort Inc., a non-profit focusing on fostering a historic Downtown Frankfort, in conjunction with the Frankfort/Franklin County Tourist Commission which promotes Frankfort and its unique link to the spirits industry in Kentucky.
