

Kentucky Capital Development Corporation Named Most Outstanding Economic Development Firm, 2021 – Southeast USA

April 26, 2021 /Kentucky Capital Development Corporation (KCDC), Frankfort, KY, has been selected as a recipient in the 2021 Global Excellence Awards, being awarded the title Most Outstanding Economic Development Firm, Southeast USA.

The Global Excellence Awards were launched by Acquisition International to showcase the companies and individuals that are committed to innovation, business growth, and providing the very best products and services to clients across a wide range of industries.

Kentucky Capital Development Corporation focuses on diversifying and growing the local economy by attracting private sector investment and helping create and save jobs. “We are excited to have been recognized for our work and I want to thank our partners at Downtown Frankfort Inc., The Frankfort Area Chamber of Commerce, the Franklin County Tourist Commission, Franklin County and the City of Frankfort for the part they play in our continued success,” said KCDC President/CEO, Terri Bradshaw.

This award was judged purely on merit by an in-house team, with all potential winners assessed against multiple relevant criteria, including company performance over a given period of time, expertise within the industry, sector, or region, previous accolades won, and client testimonials or recommendations.
