

On November 20 at 7:30 p.m., Zoom* in to Capital Cellars in downtown Frankfort for A Flight of Kentucky History: Virtual Tour and Bourbon Tasting. You can get a taste of Kentucky's bourbon history from the comfort of your home via Zoom* as Museum Program Coordinator Carol Easterly shares the fascinating stories behind selected bourbon artifacts from the Kentucky Historical Society Collection. Capital Cellars owner, Rachael Peake, will guide us through the taste profiles of a curated flight of bourbons, selected to accompany each artifact on the tour. Sip bourbon...taste history. Register now to reserve your flight. Must be 21+ to participate.

Pricing allows for two options: bourbon provided or BYOB (bring your own bourbon).

Virtual Tour + bourbon tasting kit (flight of 5 samples):

- $50 general audience; $45 for members of KHS, the Frankfort Bourbon Society, and the Capital Cellars Bourbon Club
- Kits must be picked up at Capital Cellars on Broadway in Frankfort, KY
- Shipping is not available
- Registration deadline is Wednesday, November 18 by 4 pm EST

Virtual Tour only (no bourbon included):

- $10 general audience; $5 for members of KHS, the Frankfort Bourbon Society, and the Capital Cellars Bourbon Club
- Guests who select the tour-only option will receive a list of the bourbons selected for tasting and may purchase them on their own if desired
- Registration deadline is noon EST on the day of the program, November 20, 2020.

Reserve your spot here.

*TECHNOLOGY: This virtual event will take place via Zoom, an online meeting platform. For optimal experience, guests should connect using a device with a screen, a speaker, and a keyboard. (A web-enabled camera is also nice, but not necessary.) Need help using Zoom? Check out this short video. You can also contact us at KHSeducation@ky.gov or call 502-782-8070 with any questions.